

Trackwork at New Plymouth Raceway

Tuesday 2nd June 2020

Course Proper. Markers out 19m. Track Dead / Slow.

Time honours of the morning went to the well performed Tellyawhat, who ran 1000m, the last 600m in 36.8 seconds. Many of trainer Allan Sharrock's team appear to be coming to hand well, and will Jump Out at their local track on the 15th of June.

Stablemate, London Express, did similar work, home slightly slower in 37.0.

Vinabeel galloped with a Shining Light and Atlante over 1000m, the last 600 in 39.9. Vinabeel was well held.

Stablemate's, Tavi Mac and Mars Bar, were together over 1000m, the last 600 in 37.3. It was attractive work.

Secret Squirrel and a Niagara from the Revell stable galloped strongly over 1000m, the last 600 in 39.7. Secret Squirrel will be ready to go when racing resumes.

Stablemates, Meila Rei and Ekstrememiss, also galloped 1000m, the last 600 in 39.2.

The Sharrock pair, Penelope Cruz and Collinstreet, worked strongly over 1000m, the last 600 in 37.9. This time was equalled by Reliable Miss and Swiss Avenue who did similar work.

The last gallops were all over the 1200 or 1000m with the last 600m time in brackets; One Of The Best (38.9), Smarty Pants (39.9), Call Doubt (40.5).

Brought to you by the next race meeting at New Plymouth Raceway;
August Race Day, Friday 28 August.
